

THE ILLUMINATI VATICAN & ITS WAR WITH THE RUSSIAN ORTHODOX CHURCH

by Kerth Barker, December 4th, 2015

Hi, I'm Kerth Barker and my website is kerthbarker.com.

George Santayana once said, "Those who fail to learn from history are condemned to repeat it." And it's true that if you don't understand the lessons of the past, you can't prevent disasters from repeating themselves in the future. It's also true that the events of the present day do have their roots in the past.

In this article I'm going to briefly outline the root causes of the the recent endorsement by Pope Francis of Agenda 2030 which he made before the UN. And I'm going to suggest that the proxy war between the United States and Russia in Syria may have some deeper root causes which are unseen by the general public.

I believe that the propaganda media of the United States has wrongly demonized the Russian military and President Putin as the aggressors in Syria. What I'm going to suggest here is that this propaganda media spin on the situation Syria is not really accurate. Given Turkey's hostility toward Russia and Syria's proximity to Russia, President Putin can hardly be expected to ignore the military build-up that has taken there by forces hostile to Russia.

But before I explain this, let me go into how I first came across this information myself. For a number of years I helped to produce and sometimes host a radio program where I would frequently talk about how I survived satanic ritual abuse, and on that show I would also share with others what I knew about the Illuminati doctrine. It's because of my involvement with that radio show that I would eventually develop a relationship with a number of individuals who over a period of years have been sharing with me insider insights as to the true nature of the Illuminati.

I'm assuming that those who are reading this article are at least somewhat familiar with the Illuminati's New World Order global government. Although the term Illuminati first came into public consciousness with the Bavarian Illuminati founded in 1776, the word Illuminati preceded the founding of the Bavarian Illuminati and in recent years it has come to refer to any conspiracy group that is attempting to create a global government. And for this article to even make sense, you must be aware that there are sinister and covert groups at work in our world. And the leaders of this Illuminati globalist movement justify their actions to their followers by claiming that they are going to create a utopian world government once they are all powerful. However the more you learn, the more you realize that the leadership of the Illuminati is only driven by a callous desire for power and not some idealistic motivation.

It is the nature of this corrupt Illuminati system that I talked about on that radio program and which I am going to talk about here. As I've said, after I left that radio show I was contacted by a number of individuals who shared with me even more insider information about this Illuminati system. They encouraged me to write articles which I put up on the internet, and eventually I also published several books. These books were based on my personal experiences, my own research as well as insider information that had been given me by others. In writing these books my only claim was that I was being as honest as I could be, but I never claimed that I knew everything about the Illuminati. I always felt that there were some big pieces to the puzzle that I did not know. But I believed that it was best to go ahead and publish what I did know because — clearly I seemed to know more about the Illuminati system than most people.

However recently I was contacted by someone who was able to spell out to me some new facts about the true nature of the Illuminati. And what I've recently learned has changed how I understand the Illuminati system and how I perceive the present military conflict in Syria.

Since I was a child I've known about the existence of an international Luciferian secret society which exists among the wealthy aristocrats. But after all of these decades, and for the first time in my life, I finally understand who is really at the top of the pyramid and I understand the true ancient roots of this modern New World Order. I also now understand the ancient conflict that is the real motivation behind NATO's desire for war against the Russian Republic. For I believe that if you do a proper analysis of this situation you'll find that Russia was not the initial aggressor in this situation.

In this article I'm only going to roughly outline certain radical ideas that reject the conventional mass media's position on this conflict. And I am aware that certain other researchers have gone into greater detail than me concerning these subjects. But most people aren't familiar with these realizations, so I felt it was important to say something. These ideas may be new to you or you may already be familiar many of them. But I am certain that at the very least you will read about some new ideas to which you've never been exposed, and possibly you'll see the world in a whole new way.

The Illuminati does exist and it is a very toxic organization which threatens both humanity and our ecosystem here on Earth. The Illuminati is now attempting to enact plans that would oppress all freedom and put the entire world under the complete control of a small group of rather insane leaders. The way to stop the Illuminati is to become informed as to its true nature and to inform others. It is only through its secrecy that it remains in power, and once its secrecy is removed its power base can be challenged.

So let me spell out a brief history of the Illuminati. The Illuminati is a form of the ancient Luciferian religion. The name Lucifer refers to the "light bearer" and there have been many different names used for Lucifer throughout history. Luciferianism has been in existence in various forms for more than six thousand years. In ancient times it was a form of astro-theology which used religious indoctrination as a mechanism for social control so that a small group of aristocrats could dominate the population of a society. Some ancient Luciferian cultures were relatively benevolent, however others were extremely cruel and oppressive. These differing Luciferian cultures existed throughout the world on most continents and in most regions.

The pyramid is both an architectural symbol and organizational model for a Luciferian hierarchy. In a Luciferian society, all the power is at the top of the pyramid, and the slaves at the bottom of the pyramid do all of the work and have no social status or power.

However, in spite of the wide spread nature of ancient Luciferianism, in some areas of the world the Luciferian cults were rejected by the people, and in some remote regions Luciferian culture never quite took hold. This point needs to be made. In ancient times Luciferianism was a craft, a way of power, but on a global level, it was not a single centrally controlled organization. Although there were many different Luciferian-based societies and nations, in these ancient times they were not unified under a single leadership. These Luciferian nations often fought with one another. And this lack of central control over all of the Luciferian religions kept Luciferianism from becoming all powerful. So humanity did still experience varying degrees of freedom.

Somewhere around the time of 336 BC, Alexander the Great was initiated into an Egyptian Luciferian cult. They sponsored his attempt at creating a world wide empire. Their failed attempt to create a global empire through Alexander the Great represented an early effort to unify the various Luciferian Kingdoms.

But it would be the Roman Empire that would launch the most serious attempt to bring all Luciferian culture under a single umbrella of control.

By the time of the birth of Ptolemy Caesar (who was the child of Julius Caesar and Queen Cleopatra) in 46 BC, there were many different Mystery Schools found throughout the regions that surrounded the Mediterranean sea. These were called Mystery Schools because what was taught in those schools was unknown to ordinary people. Only the aristocrats and their children who attended these Mystery Schools knew what went on inside. And it was in such schools that initiates were indoctrinated, brainwashed and trained to be Luciferian leaders. Although there were many different types of Mystery Schools in the Mediterranean region, there were two factions that were most powerful. These were the Roman Mystery Schools and the Egyptian Mystery Schools. And the real significance of the relationship of Caesar and Cleopatra was that it brought together these two most powerful groups of Luciferians.

The relationship of Caesar and Cleopatra was not the romantic partnership as depicted in movies and literature. Their relationship was politically motivated and covertly arranged in advanced to their first meeting. The story of Cleopatra being smuggled into Caesar's room in a rug without him knowing of this in advance is a fairy tale for adults. There was a vast conspiracy behind their first meeting and their relationship. The Roman followers of the Emperor Caesar and the Egyptian followers of Queen Cleopatra desired to create a unified Luciferian cult that would someday take over the entire world. The birth of their only child, Ptolemy Caesar, would mark the true beginning of the secret society which today is known today as the Illuminati.

During ancient times, Caesar and Cleopatra might well have succeeded in creating a dynasty which would have achieved eventual world domination except for a number of events which slowed down the Illuminati's growth. The murder of the Emperor Caesar by Roman patriots loyal to the Republic was one of those events. Another event was the eventual rise of Christianity.

Although I am a Christian, it is not my intention to promote Christianity through this article. But I would point out that Christianity had a profound influence upon the Roman Empire. With the rise of Christianity, much of the extreme decadence of the Roman Empire came to an end. For example, the common religious practice of animal sacrifice would come to an end with the emergence of Christianity. Prior to the time of the historical Jesus, animal sacrifice had been practiced throughout the Mediterranean world for thousands of years. As well as this, many of the cultural values which made Western Civilization possible also emerged through Christianity.

But what I have recently come to realize is that even as the historical Jesus was creating his religious movement, Ptolemy Caesar, the child of Caesar and Cleopatra, was creating a Luciferian secret society in the heart of Rome. Much of the true history of this man has been hidden from conventional history books. When he was a child, Ptolemy Caesar was known as Caesarion, which means little Caesar. His followers worshipped him as a god. His mother was worshipped as the goddess Isis, and throughout much of his life he was known as Issa, the son of Isis. And what I have come to realize is that this Luciferian secret society, founded by Ptolemy Caesar and now known as the Illuminati, is still headquartered in Rome.

At this point I want to make it clear that I am not anti-Catholic. I am certainly not saying that I believe that all Catholics are evil. I believe that most Catholics are sincere Christians and that most Catholic Priests and Nuns are good persons who intend well. I have friends who are Catholic and in the past I have on occasion personally attended Catholic Mass. I recognize that Catholic charities have helped many people.

However I also understand that hidden within the Roman Catholic Church is a secretive Luciferian cult. This cult is the ultimate wolf in sheep's clothing. And this Luciferian cult has emerged to take over the leadership of the Catholic Church at this present time. The election of the first Jesuit Pope marks the end of any resistance to the secretive Luciferian cult that has existed in the Rome since the time of Ptolemy Caesar.

I do acknowledge that many Jesuits are recognized as respected educators. But many other researchers have exposed the deep corruption that exists within the Jesuit Order, which is headed by its own Black Pope. The Jesuits are known to make dark oaths in which they swear to commit terrible acts of violence against all of their enemies. And for a Jesuit member to take the position of the Pontiff in Rome represents a profound change in the politics of the Vatican Nation State.

I do not hate Pope Francis, however, I recognize that Pope Francis, like President Barack Obama, is not what he seems to be. Although this Pope presents a positive message of hope and love, he is really endorsing an oppressive New World Order which threatens all of humanity. Just as the positive message of President Barack Obama concealed a hidden agenda that has greatly harmed the American people, the positive message of Pope Francis conceals a hidden agenda that is greatly harming all of the people of the world.

When Pope Francis recently stood in the United Nations building and endorsed the UN's Agenda 2030, he was endorsing a plan to take over all of the world's resources by this small group of aristocrats that control the UN. The UN's Agenda 2030 is not a plan to feed the poor as it claims to be. If you do a proper analysis you can clearly see that it is a plan to destroy the middle class in Europe and the United States. Agenda 2030 is a plan that calls for the Vatican Illuminati to achieve total domination of the globe by the year 2030.

Another thing that has recently become clear to me is that there are hidden ancient roots to the present political conflict between NATO forces and the Russian Republic. It has been revealed to me by my sources that this conflict which is now violently manifesting itself in Syria, is a conflict that is based on an ancient conflict between the Church in Rome and the Orthodox Russian Church. The Russian Orthodox Church is not controlled by the Church in Rome, which means that it is not controlled by the hidden Illuminati cult that exists within the Roman Catholic Church. In 1439 there was an attempt by the Papacy in Rome to take over the Russian Orthodox Church, but that failed. Nicholas the Second, the last czar of Russia, was aware of the Illuminati, which is why the Illuminati arranged for the destruction of him and his family. The Soviet Union was influenced by the Illuminati and it tried to suppress the Russian Orthodox Church, but failed to do so. I cannot, in a few sentences, fully explain the complex relationship between the Catholic Church in Rome and the Russian Orthodox Church. But after a great deal of research, it has finally become clear to me that the Illuminati is centered in the Vatican, and that the Illuminati sees the Russian Orthodox Church as a final barrier to its complete world domination.

Although there are some citizens in the United States and Europe who know that the Illuminati exists and who do oppose it, the Illuminati has all but taken over the leadership of the United States and NATO. In America and the EU, resistance to the control of the Illuminati is weak.

The terrorist group known as ISIS is not what the American media presents it to be. The true story is that ISIS is named after Cleopatra who was known to her cult followers as the living incarnation of the goddess Isis. She was the mother of the Illuminati's true founder, Ptolemy Caesar, who himself was also known as Issa, son of Isis. The CIA is controlled by the Skull and Bones Society, which itself is controlled by the Jesuits. And the Jesuits are controlled by the Vatican Illuminati. Like Al Qaeda, this Islamic State, ISIS, is a creation of the CIA. And through ISIS and other forces, a proxy war is being waged on Russia.

And the proxy war between the US and Russia in Syria is really a war between the Vatican Illuminati and the Russian Orthodox Church. As bizarre as that sounds, this is what I have come to realize.

The roots of this conflict are not at all what the popular mass media would have you believe. The policy of hostility by the United States toward the Russian Republic is ill conceived and does not work toward the best interests of the American people. And how this present war in Syria plays out could well affect the future of the world.

I personally believe in the Constitution of the United States and I believe in the people of the United States. I am not favoring the Russian Republic over the welfare of the American people. But the present day Jesuit-controlled leadership of the government of the United States serves the Vatican Illuminati — not the Constitution nor the people of America.

So this proxy war between the US and Russia is a lose/lose situation for the US. If the US defeats Russia this will serve the Illuminati's goal of creating a global government, and that will be bad for the American people. If the Russian military prevails in Syria, that could be harmful to any US troops that find themselves involved in this Syrian conflict. No matter how it turns out, a war between the US and Russia cannot end well for the American people.

The American people need to wake up and realize that Russia and the Russian Orthodox Church are not our true enemy. The Illuminati is centered as a hidden Luciferian cult within the Vatican, and the Illuminati operates through the United Nations. It is the Illuminati which is the true enemy of the American people.

I believe that ultimately the Illuminati will fail and that the UN's Agenda 2030 will fail. However, we live in the most dangerous of times. If you desire for yourself and your family to survive these violent conflicts and threatening social trends, you need to understand their true cultural roots.

Although most Catholics and Jesuits are Christians who have studied the teachings of Jesus Christ in the Bible, the top leaders of the Catholic and Jesuit institutions are not Christians. They are Luciferians. Pope Francis and other Illuminati members openly worship Flammas Lucifer (Flaming Lucifer) who they believe is the father of Christ. But the true Christ is not the son of Lucifer. The true Christ is humanity's savior, but Lucifer would be our destroyer.

You do not have to be a Christian to see the Luciferian Agenda as a threat to yourself and your family. And you do not have to believe in any religious philosophy in order to understand the threat of Luciferianism to the world. You do not have to be a Christian to oppose Luciferianism. But I can't avoid the topic of Christianity in explaining this subject.

The early Christian movement arose as a reaction to the oppressive nature of the Luciferian controlled Roman Empire. So whether you believe in this faith or not, Christianity is still a relevant topic in understanding the Illuminati. Even if you are not a Christian, you must realize that the Book of Revelations was written in the time period when the Luciferian cult, created by Ptolemy Caesar, was secretly taking hold in the ancient city of Rome. And the author of Revelations, John, seems to have been aware of the nature of this evil force that was growing in his day. He may have used a complex set of colorful symbols to give a precognitive insight into these powerful events that are now being manifested in our own time period. Whether it is an extraordinary coincidence, a precognitive shamanic vision or the word of God — the Book of Revelations gives insight into our present day conflicts. And I find hope in the conclusion of the Book of Revelations which shows that the evil Luciferian Beast and its False Prophet are to be destroyed.

If you are American or European, you need to be aware that our Illuminati-controlled political leaders are marching us into an ill-conceived war to destroy the Russian Orthodox Church. And my prayers are that the Luciferian leadership will be defeated and that those who remain true to their faith in Christ will prevail.

Thank you for reading this article. May the One True God, Creator of all good things, bless you, guide you and protect you and your family in these most dangerous of times.
